

DIY

PAPER GARDEN ROSE

ISSUE
sisterMAG62

PAPER GARDEN ROSE

Contributor: THE HOUSE THAT LARS BUILT

Materials

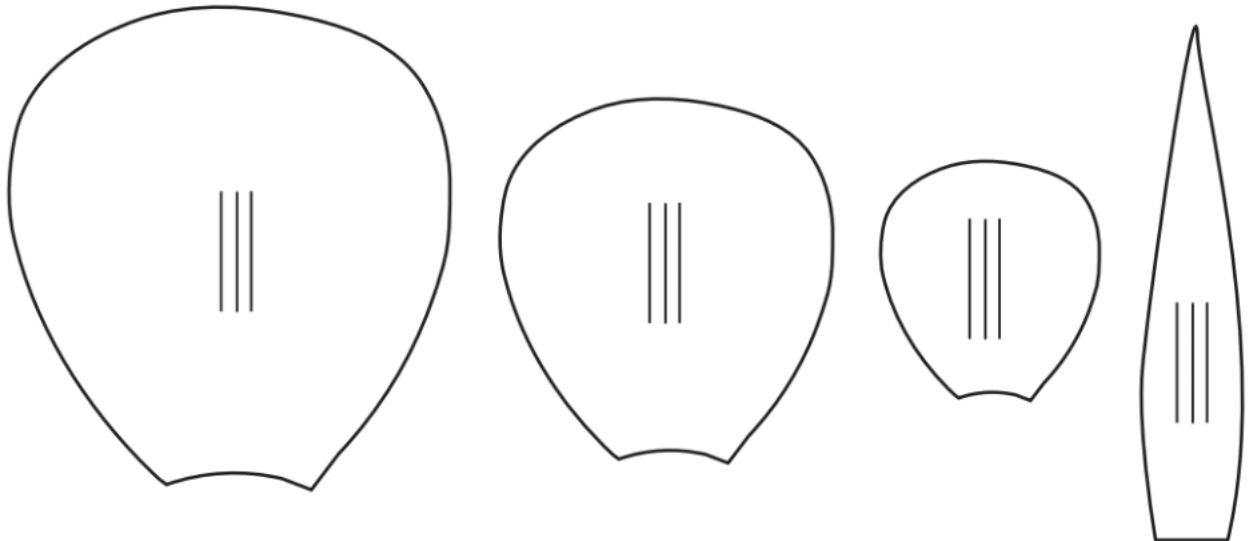

- crepe paper in a pink and a green
- wire
- wire cutters
- glue gun
- scissors
- template

Instructions

- STEP 1 Cut a small piece of crepe paper about 2x3cm
- STEP 2 Cut another small piece of crepe paper about 5x5cm and scrunch it into a ball. Glue a piece of wire into the ball and glue in place.
- STEP 3 Wrap the first piece of crepe paper around the ball and twist it and secure it with glue.
- STEP 4 Cut out the templates
- STEP 5 Start the rose by cutting the smallest petal shape onto the crepe paper with the grain of the crepe going vertical as indicated on the template. Stretch out the paper gently.
- STEP 6 Glue at the bottom of the petal and wrap around the base of the ball. Do about 5 or 6 of these.
- STEP 7 Go onto your next shape and repeat with about 6 more petals.
- STEP 8 Finish it off with the largest petal shape. Repeat until you have the size of rose you'd like.
- STEP 9 The last petals should bend outwards.
- STEP 10 Add 5 or 6 long green leaves around the base of the petals
- STEP 11 Cut a piece of crepe paper about 1cm by 10cm long going against the grain. Stretch it out gently. Glue the paper to the base of the flower and wrap around the wire.
- STEP 12 Cut out your leaves and insert them into the stem.
- STEP 13 Glue in place.

PAPER GARDEN ROSE

Rose: cut 7 of each petal size,
1 square stigma,
5 pointy leaves

1x1 inch square for stigmas

ISSUE sisterMAG62

MORE DIYS